

ICAC's 82nd Plenary Meeting

International Hotel
Tashkent, Uzbekistan

29 Sept - 3 Oct 2024

Ms. Eimear McDonagh

During her 28 years' experience as an International Marketing Manager in the Australian cotton industry, Eimear managed cotton lint sales, trade finance, and all export supply chain activities. Along with the traditional markets in Southeast Asia, she was instrumental in building the Indonesian, Bangladesh, and Chinese markets and developing Australia's reputation as a long-term provider of high-quality cotton.

Eimear has served as a director for the Australian Cotton Shippers Association (ACSA) and the Australian Peak Shippers Association (APSA). As one of the first female Directors of the International Cotton Association (ICA), Eimear is a founding member of Women In Cotton (WiC) initiative that aims to improve diversity and the role of women in the global cotton industry. Recently appointed as the ICA's representative to the PSAC Merchants Committee for the ICAC, she works to serve the cotton community to promote knowledge sharing and innovation. Her passion lies in connecting global buyers to a sustainable and traceable cotton supply chain and to promoting the good cotton story for the benefit of all.
